

Discover a Private Mountaintop Community

Imagine a mountain community that truly celebrates nature.

Where half of the property is permanently protected.

Where hiking trails showcase wildlife, native plants and waterfalls.

Where homes fit naturally into their hardwood forest surroundings.

And where the community clubhouse offers the finest views on the property.

That community is Creston.

Homes and cabins are tucked away, yet reveal breathtaking views and vistas.

Rustic design, sustainable materials and careful development come together to create a timeless sanctuary, a quiet veil of seclusion perched eight miles above Black Mountain and just minutes from Asheville's acclaimed cultural and scenic attractions.
